

FIBREWORKS 2018

September 21 - November 4, 2018

Cambridge Art Galleries
IDEA|EXCHANGE.

Fibreworks, now in its 17th edition, is a biennial juried exhibition of contemporary Canadian fibre art. It is a showcase of the most current and versatile approaches to fibre as a medium. This exhibition is one of the largest group shows in Canada and serves as a survey of the artists currently working in the medium.

Fibreworks 2018 is juried by Melissa Bennett, Curator of Contemporary Art, AGH and Meghan Price, Toronto based Artist and Instructor.
